

Restaurant Manager

Guyers House Hotel is a 4 star country house hotel on the Wiltshire/Cotswold Border. With 37 bedrooms, 6 acres of beautiful gardens and a conference suite, we have an exciting summer season ahead. We are commencing a repositioning exercise later this year, which introduces an amazing opportunity for an individual looking to invest in their career.

We're looking for a Restaurant Manager to join our Food & Beverage Team, to lead our team through a successful 2022 and train and develop them to build them as a team.

Supported by an Assistant Restaurant Manager and a Restaurant Supervisor, we're looking for someone who shows an interest in progression, high standards and high quality food to continue our hospitality journey.

We're looking for an effective communicator who leads from the front and has a strong interest in developing their team. Working with a team of enthusiastic individuals, you'll notice the fine details during service, enabling our guests to relax throughout their stay with us.

Ideal candidates will have a friendly and warm personality, be able to remain calm under pressure whilst delivering a seamless service. Candidates will ideally come from a strong background in either F&B or C&B. Some financial acumen would be advantageous.

The position is highly operational, prioritising our guests needs at all times, the role involves minimal office work.

48 hour contract to include early, late and weekend shifts on a rota basis, covering some Duty Manager shifts.

Chef de Partie

Guyers House Hotel is undergoing a repositioning exercise under new ownership and we are looking to expand our kitchen brigade.

We're looking for a creative, passionate and hardworking Chef de Partie to join our team. An interest in fresh local produce alongside a desire to learn and develop is essential.

The position includes both restaurant and function service, with the option to learn additional skills along the way. We're big on engaging and empowering our team through internal and external training opportunities.

Working a 48 hour contract over 5 days, an ideal opportunity for individuals looking to being involved in a busy operation, whilst sharing an influence on the food we serve. Part time hours considered.

Commis Chef

Guyers House Hotel are looking for a creative individual to join their kitchen brigade as a Commis Chef. We're a small team, with high service standards and a willingness to create a welcoming atmosphere essential.

We're looking for someone with a passion for locally sourced ingredients to create beautiful dishes, working with our Head Chef, this will help shape your successful career from the onset.

Our menu is comprised of fresh, seasonal dishes, using ingredients from our kitchen garden to create spectacular dishes. Working under the guidance of our Head Chef, you will prepare ingredients for our dishes and help a section throughout service.

The position would suit a college leaver, looking for their first professional position. A team player and the ability to be involved essential.

Sous Chef

Guyers House Hotel is looking to appoint a professional, passionate and creative Sous Chef to join their Kitchen Brigade.

The ideal candidate will have an interest in using fresh, local produce to accompany high presentation skills is essential, with the opportunity to progress with your culinary skills.

With a busy operation, the ability to work under pressure is a must. We're asking for two years experience with the desire to learn and progress.

Working with a team of skilled chefs, leading the team in the Head Chef's absence, following H&S procedures and ownership of looking after your section. You'll be interested in supporting and developing your kitchen brigade to learn and improve, working with them to improve their culinary skills.

Some financial acumen, would be advantageous.

We're offering a 48 hour contract with a salary to reflect experience.